Receiving Gifts

by Pastor Chris

As a kid, I always looked forward to receiving gifts on Christmas morning. Even all these years later, giving and receiving gifts remains a treasured tradition for me.

I think it's a mistake for Christians to vilify gift giving during Christmas when giving gifts is one way to express love and appreciation for someone else. It also allows others to show their love and appreciation for you.

The Christmas gifts we give to one another also point us to a God who gives us good gifts as well. We do well to remember that God pours out gifts each and every day, granting and supplying all that we need to support this body and life. Our daily blessings provide a snapshot of a generous God bestowing bountiful gifts all life long.

During Advent, we recall the anticipation of our Lord's first coming while eagerly awaiting His promised return. As we enter the Christmas season, we remember our Lord's birth and the fulfillment of God's promises of a Savior. The Christ child certainly tops our list of best gifts!

God also pours out His gifts during the divine service and study of His Word. Here, Christians receive the forgiveness of sins freely given in Christ through the means of grace that grant us the faith to graciously receive these gifts. Here, God is working, acting and giving. Here God has promised to give us the power of salvation for those who believe. Here we receive the Holy Spirit. Here, we remember where the best gifts can be found!

I love receiving gifts! And the best ones are not found in a mall or online but by Christians gathering in worship. No Black Friday deal can top the value of Good Friday. It is on a lonely hill outside Jerusalem where the Christ took our death, our scorn, our shame, our sentence and our sin. It is here that he gave sinners an inheritance that will last forever: holy, precious and pure kept in heaven for us. Jesus is our gift that just keeps on giving!

Have a blessed Advent, mercy Christmas and happy new year celebrating God's giving to you and yours!

Pastor Chris

On November 22, we gave thanks to God for our congregation reaching two milestones. On that Sunday, we dedicated a new organ, along with burning the mortgage on our 1996 building addition. In his message for that day, Pastor Dave reminded us that "dedication is not just a one-day occurrence." Every day, God gives us physical and spiritual blessings. Before we can talk about any dedication that we do, we first remember the LORD's devotion and commitment to us. It is in response to God's love for us that frames any dedication or work that we do in our congregation.

Organists for that day:
Loretta Rasmusson,
Katie Rolf and Ann Kelly

As we dedicated the organ and burned the mortgage, we were also reminded that the building and everything in it are tools and instruments that help us carry on God's ministry among us and in our community. We could worship and carry on our Sunday school program without this building. Music could be led by something besides the organ. However, having a building with a wonderful organ provides us with a wonderful place and instrument that help us enrich the ministry we carry on here.

We would like to thank everyone who made the celebration of November 22 possible because of the gifts of time, talents and finances they gave. Without the generosity of members and friends of Beautiful Savior, this would not have come about. We would like to acknowledge two special gifts that especially helped with the purchase of the new organ. Memorials and gifts from the estates of Louise Richter and Esther Wallum greatly helped us in reaching the amount that we needed to purchase the new organ. Louise and Esther were devoted members of Beautiful Savior Lutheran. Louise died in September of 2014 and Esther in May of 2015.

Dan Berglind and Chuck Hoge are burning the mortgage as Pastor Chris, Pastor Dave and Brad Cogdill watch.

Munchies for Missions Sunday, Dec. 6

Here's an easy way to handle your holiday baking this year: pick up some delicious treats before and after both worship services on Sunday, Dec 6. If there are any goodies left, they will be available again at 4 p.m. just prior to the Christmas tea later in the day. The proceeds from the Munchies and the Tea will go to support the LWML MITES program (20 percent) and the BSLC Sudanese Ministry (80 percent). Invite a friend to come to church with you this Sunday so she can get some goodies too!

Be sure to bring your filled container to BSLC between 9 a.m. and noon on Saturday, Dec. 5, so that the LWML ladies can get the items priced for Sunday. Thanks for your support.

Christmas Poinsettias

Don't forget to purchase a poinsettia in memory or in honor of a loved one for this Christmas season. The sign-up sheets are on the table in the narthex. The cost is $12. After Christmas, you may take your poinsettia(s) home with you.

“The King Is Coming”

Midweek Advent Services

The Kingdom of God is a major theme in God’s holy history, from the house and lineage of David to David’s greater Son and Lord, whose birth we anticipate in this season of Advent. Our midweek Advent Services will focus on the words from the Old Testament prophets, who spoke from their perspective of their own times under the kings of Israel and Judah, with all their human foibles and failures. Yet the Word of God through these words of the prophets speaks of a greater king to come, whose kingdom will have no end.

Our lives as God’s people in Christ are “lived under Him in His Kingdom,” as Luther put it in it – under the righteous rule and reign of Christ our King. Christmas celebrates his birth and coming among us, even as we pray as He taught us, “Thy Kingdom Come.”

May our Advent worship help us prepare and rejoice, for the King is coming!

“The King’s City: Safe and Secure”

Midweek Advent 1 – Dec. 2
Based on Jeremiah 33:14-16

“The King’s Herald: Announcing the King”

Midweek Advent 2 – Dec. 9

“The King’s Royal Roots: Back to the Future”

Update on the Sudanese

For five years, a Sudanese community has been worshipping at our facility. It is a young congregation, not only in how many years it has been around, but also in its makeup. Young families with children compose the majority of the community.

Children singing a song during worship

The congregation is lead by two vicars: Daniel Mapur and Samuel Majak. Daniel and Samuel enrolled in a program sponsored by the Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod (LCMS) to train various ethnic leaders to become pastors in specialized ministries. For more than two years, they have been taking online courses with an occasional trip for a week seminar in St. Louis. Pastor Dave is the supervisor for these two vicars with Pastor Chris also helping them out. They have two more years of study to complete the course. Upon successful completion, they will be ordained as pastors in the LCMS.

Our congregation has been financially supporting Daniel and Samuel through tuition assistance. The LWML of our congregation and in our district also is giving aid. Seeing this mission opportunity, the ND District of the LCMS passed a resolution this past January to help support this mission. The cost of educating each student is about $8,500 per year. However, having trained and well-educated pastors is a blessing for the whole church. Daniel and Samuel are extremely grateful for the opportunity to take classes from our seminary in St. Louis.

Please keep the Sudanese in your prayers. You also may give a donation to go towards their education. Note it on your offering envelopes. You may also call the church office or one of the pastors about this.

Women's Christmas Tea 5 p.m. Dec. 6

Our fellowship hall will take on a new look and be beautifully adorned with Christmas trees and tables decked with Christmas finery for the Women's Christmas Tea. The evening entertainment will be provided by Kim, Mary and Theresa, otherwise known as the Grape Suzettes. They have been singing together for the past 12 years and will share their musical renditions of favorite Christmas songs and carols. A free will offering will be taken for Sudanese Ministry expenses and for MITES mission projects.

Vicar Samuel and his wife, Mary, along with their children: Ruben, Ahoi, Aler and Nyan Kiir

We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers.
