Daylight-Saving Time Begins

Sunday, March 12.

Turn your clocks ahead 1 hour!

OUR MISSION is to share God's message, to grow in our faith, to love and serve others.

Sudanese Ministry at Beautiful Savior by Pastor Dave

Mission work and ministry to people of different cultures and languages does not only happen in other places around the world. It has been happening at Beautiful Savior for some time. Seven years ago, some Sudanese Christians were drawn to our church denomination because of our doctrine and practice. They approached Pastor Dave and asked if they could use our building to conduct worship services in their native language. After approval by the Church Council and the voters, they began to worship on Sunday afternoons in September 2010. Pastor Dave and Pastor Chris worked with these new Americans. As a result of that, Daniel and Samuel enrolled in our Synodical program in 2013 to become pastors of specialized ministries in the LCMS. They were called by our congregation to serve as vicars to the Sudanese community in 2014.

Daniel and Samuel will complete their studies in August. After they have completed their classes and an interview process, they can be ordained if they have a call from a congregation. At our voters' meeting on March 5,

"Lies of Lent" Marks Midweek Series

Our 7 p.m. Midweek Lenten services will begin on March 1 on Ash Wednesday and runs through April 5. We invite you to join us for worship as well as fellowship and food during our Soup and Sandwich suppers from 6-6:45 p.m.

This year's midweek series, "The Lies of Lent," highlights the ongoing struggle between Satan, the father of lies, and Yahweh, the God of truth. Follow this clash in the lives of people from the passion story, including Judas, Peter, the priests, Herod and the thief on the cross.

The struggle between lies and truth remain relevant for God's people today. On one hand, the words of the father of lies seek to deceive and lead astray. On the other hand, the truth of the Gospel brings people to Jesus, who is The Truth, The Way and The Life.

The Lies of Lent schedule is:

March 1 (Ash Wednesday) – You Know Best

March 8 – You are a Rock

March 15 – Sit Back and Wait

March 22 – A Little is All Right

March 29 – Leaders are Always Right

April 5 – Entertainment is Always Entertaining

the Board of Elders and the Church Council will recommend that we call vicars Daniel Mapur and Samuel Majak as pastors to the Sudanese congregation at Beautiful Savior.

If our congregation calls Daniel and Samuel, they would be pastors of specialized ministries to new Americans from Africa. This means that their situation would be different from the that of Pastor Dave and Pastor Chris. They will continue to have full-time jobs that provide them with salary and health insurance. Their calls will be to serve the Sudanese by:

- Leading the Sudanese worship services
- Providing pastoral care for the Sudanese
- Providing Christian education to the Sudanese community and
- Doing outreach among the new Americans in our community from Africa

Some other things to keep in mind are:

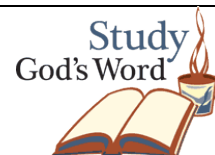

- They will not take over any pastoral duties from Pastor Dave or Pastor Chris. They may help with the liturgy at our regular worship services, but they will not preach.
- If our congregation calls them and they successfully complete their studies, they will be ordained in September.
- Visiting with the Sudanese, it is beneficial to recognize that Daniel is seen now as the senior vicar, and that would continue to be the case. Daniel would have the senior pastor position in the Sudanese community and Samuel the associate pastor position.

Through the support of our congregation and its pastors, ministry to people of a different culture and language has been happening at Beautiful Savior. At the voters' meeting in March, we will be looking at taking another step in this mission work by calling pastors.

Please visit Pastor Dave or Pastor Chris if you would like to have more information about the Sudanese before the voters' meeting that will be held at 9:35 a.m. Sunday, March 5, in the fellowship hall.

Pastor Dave

Bible Studies

Sunday Morning Bible Study 9:40 a.m. "The Way of Jesus"

Jesus called his disciples to "follow me." Yet even before the promised Savior was born, there were centuries of men and women who lived by faith and walked in the way of righteousness. For our next Sunday morning Bible study, we will explore how several Old Testament people anticipated Christ's coming. To begin with, we will look at Abraham, Moses and David. We invite you to join us in the fellowship hall between worship services.

Tuesday Evening Bible Study 7 p.m. "Interpreting the Prophecy"

To someone sitting in the quiet of their home, the book of Revelation often presents difficulties and brings perplexities. Some people dismiss the book of Revelation as nonsense. Others in the church have used this book to feed their fevered dreams. But it did not originate as a book to be dismissed, coolly pondered or as food to feed the dreams of idle people. It is the cry of victory raised for the cause of Christ when the cause of Christ seemed doomed. Revelation is a letter addressed to Christians experiencing trials and difficulties because of their faith. It is written so that God's people can live each moment in joy and confidence no matter what happens in this world because we know that Jesus Christ rules all things now and forever. Its message is still relevant for us today. Join us on Tuesday, March 7, as we explore this important book of the Bible.

Women's Bible Study "Esther: Character Under Pressure" 6 p.m. Mondays and 9 a.m. Thursdays

"Who are you when no one's looking?" When her people were threatened, Esther had to ask herself that question. She could risk her life to try to save her fellow Israelites, or she could "keep her head down" to wait out the threat in obscurity and safety. You'll discover how godly character often develops under pressure. And you'll discover ideas for living a godly life in the midst of contemporary pressures. This study meets Monday evenings or Thursday mornings, so come when you are able.

Ash Wednesday Worship

7 p.m. March 1

Please join us for the start of our Lenten worship.

Voters' Meeting and Election March 5

There will be a voters' meeting on Sunday, March 5, between worship services. Election of officers will be held and other discussion of various issues in the church. If you have any business for the church, please call Brad Cogdill at 237-3821 or talk to either of the pastors.

LWML News

Our next meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, March 16, at the church. All women of BSLC are invited to attend and learn more about the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

New Member Corner

BSLC would like to welcome new members John and Betty Hagge. They moved here from Tennessee when John accepted the call to be principal at Grace Lutheran School. John enjoys our praise worship, and he has joined the praise band. They both appreciate our friendly congregation. In their spare time, they enjoy watching football, relaxing outside and spending time with their three grown-up children. Their favorite Bible stories are well-known: Creation, Noah and the flood and the Resurrection of Jesus. Acts 2:42-47 is a favorite verse of theirs.

BSLC also welcomes Gladys Hauck to our church. She has lived in the area since 1990. She enjoys our friendly members. In her spare time, she likes to read, quilt and play board games. Her favorite verse is John 3:16 as it does sum up God's love for mankind.

March Service Group

Sherry Anderson is our captain for March. Our group consists of the last names that begin with the letters Br-D. She will call you asking for treats or to help out with funerals or other events. Thanks for your willingness to help.

Our April group will be E-G with captain Diane Lee. We are still in need of someone to be our group captain for A-Bo.

Elder for March

Nathan Gannon is our elder for March. He will take time to greet members and visitors, help the pastors with any needs and see that things run smoothly. If you have any concerns for our church, talk to Nathan or any of the elders.

BSLC Coffee Club

Every Friday, BSLC members gather at 9 a.m. at Randy's, 2130 University Drive S., Fargo. Take time to get to know other BSLC members. This is for both men and women of any age.

Your Time is Needed Sundays

Help is needed with running the PowerPoint, ushering and counting the offering each week. A sign-up sheet is in the lobby. Please consider taking time on a Sunday to help out.

Praying For Others

Prayer Chain: BSLC has an e-mail prayer chain. If you have a concern or joy and would like our prayer warriors to pray for you or others, please e-mail the office, and your prayer will be sent out on the e-mail chain. Also please e-mail updates to the office so it can be e-mailed to our prayer warriors.

Sunday prayers posted in bulletin: Please let the church know if you have prayer concerns and joys to put in our announcements. The petitions will continue to run weekly until you let the church know to remove them off the list. Our church members appreciate the chance to pray for our particular needs and joys. God hears all our prayers at all times.

Show Me? God Did Just That in Christ Jesus

by Pastor Chris

If you had to pick a U.S. vacation destination based on state mottos, it's safe to assume people would give my home state a wide berth. Why? The Missouri motto doesn't highlight any majestic state attraction. It doesn't beam with civic pride over any local product. It doesn't scream "come and visit; you'll be glad you did." Nope. The "Show Me State" warns that they're ready to disbelieve you.

When it comes to the truth of the Scriptures, however, Missourians are not the only skeptics. The world has increasingly abandoned the idea of God by adopting a "show me" attitude. Comedians like Woody Allen point to the fallen, sinful broken nature of the world as proof that God does not exist. Allen says if he has to accept the idea of God, he has to admit: "He's an underachiever."

"Scientific" minded individuals, meanwhile, like to remove God from the equation when finding answers to the origins of both the universe and species on this planet. They too say "show me" when it comes to God. Never mind that science cannot truly explain the idea of something coming from nothing, nor has science observed natural selection and adaptation producing new creatures. (Darwin's finches are still finches.)

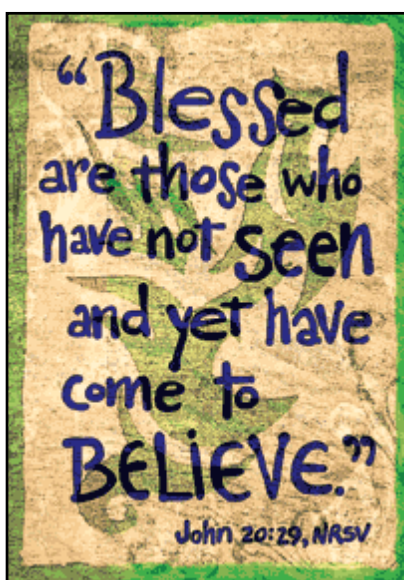

For Christians, it's important to remember that when it comes to God, the "show me" crowd has forgotten or ignored history. It would take a very long time to chart all the ways God has acted within the confines of human history in the Scriptures, so I have chosen just a few.

In the Gospel of John alone, Jesus performs signs as an overwhelming demonstration of His divinity and as a proof of truth concerning His testimony as the one whom the true God has sent as savior.

Jesus miraculously feeds 5,000 with just two fish and five loaves of bread before making the claim "I am the bread of life," a bread that goes way beyond physical sustenance. When Jesus cures a man who had been blind from birth, it gives miraculous credence to Christ's claim that he is "the light of the world," a statement that has deeper ramifications than meets the eye. Jesus comes to restore the spiritually blind by showing people their sin and, more importantly, showing people their savior.

Most remarkably, the resurrected Jesus appears to doubting disciples, fearing family and weeping women, backing up his claim that he would suffer, die and rise again so that repentance and forgiveness of sins would be preached in His name.

Jesus is at his "show me" best after Thomas the disciple has been told Jesus is alive. Thomas responds with the ultimatum "unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails and place my hand into his side, I will never believe," (John 20:25b). Eight days later, Jesus appears to Thomas, who hears, sees and touches the risen Christ.

The point is that we do not have a blind faith. I like to tell the confirmation kids that not believing in Jesus is like not believing in George Washington. Our hope is built on apostolic witness and testimony that faithfully recorded the words and deeds of Jesus in history. And those things were recorded and written so that we might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing, you may have life in His name.

So the next time you might be tempted to ask God to "show you" that He loves you or that he even exists at all, remember the healing words of Luke, the good doctor and evangelist who records what happened before Jesus ascended into heaven: "(Jesus) presented himself alive to (the disciples) after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God," (Acts 1:3).
