LCMS President Pens Letter on Equality Act

By Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison, LCMS president

The words of the apostle Peter apply to us now: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith — more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire — may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory." (1 Peter 1:3–8)

The church's task is not political. It is the proclamation of the Gospel of free salvation in the cross and resurrection of Jesus for all (1 Cor. 1:23; John 18:36). "The Church is the congregation of saints in which the Gospel is purely taught and the Sacraments are correctly administered" (AC VII 1).

God rules His church by His infallible Word, the Holy Scriptures (John 17:17; 2 Tim. 3:15–16). God rules the state by His eternal law, reason and reasonable laws for the common welfare. "Our churches teach that lawful civil regulations are good works of God" (AC XVI 1; see Rom. 13:1–7). The church should not meddle in government affairs, especially in matters upon which the Word of God is silent. It is also wrong when governments act against God's eternal law, reason and the basic civil rights of all people. The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution enshrines this truth. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

LCMS President Pens Letter on of Equality Act

Throughout history, governments have acted unjustly — sometimes in the name of race, atheism, communism, religion and even Christianity — and curtailed or denied the rights of conscience and the free exercise of religion. And governments continue to do so. Our Lutheran and Biblical confession is that “it is necessary for Christians to be obedient to their rulers and laws. The only exception is when they are commanded to sin. Then they ought to obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29)” (AC XVI 6–7; see 1 Peter 2:13–14). St. Paul made use of his legal right as a Roman citizen (“I appeal to Caesar” Acts 25:11). “Christ’s kingdom allows us outwardly to use legitimate political ordinances of every nation in which we live, just as it allows us to use medicine or the art of building, or food, drink, and air” (Ap XVI 54). Our Lutheran Confessions commend the seeking of public remedy for injustice. “Public remedy, made through the office of the public official, is not condemned, but is commanded and is God’s work, according to Paul (Romans 13)” (Ap XVI 59). Our God-given right to act as citizens is very important, especially now.

The Equality Act is before Congress. It sounds innocent. All Americans should enjoy equality and the protections of the U.S. Constitution. But in elevating sexual orientation to a protected class, the Equality Act will bring sweeping changes to current laws to the great detriment of the religious and constitutional freedoms of Biblically faithful churches, institutions, Christian schools and individuals.

Jesus referred to Genesis 2:24, when He stated: “Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, ‘Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?’ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate.” (Matt. 19:4–6)

Churches and institutions that are bound by the Word of God to the truth of marriage between a man and a woman and that sex outside of that institution is contrary to the word of Christ and the apostles in the New Testament (1 Cor. 7:2), could be punished for simply standing on our consistent, ancient Christian beliefs. The Equality Act effectively outlaws the words of Christ, the sublime doctrine of Creation, the First Article of the Creed and our “free exercise of religion” based upon the Bible and Apostles’ Creed. The biblical teaching that marriage is between a man and a woman would be labeled forever a mere “sex-based stereotype.” The Equality Act expands the definition of “public accommodation” and puts an ultimatum to individuals, religious non-profits, food banks, schools, charities, adoption agencies and others: “Change your faith-based practices or face government punishment.”

Religious schools (K-12 and universities) are a prime target of the Equality Act, which will make it difficult to maintain standards for admission and codes of Christian conduct for students, faculty and staff. The Equality Act will forbid college students from using federal tuition assistance at schools that maintain standards of conduct on the basis of the Bible regarding sexual orientation and gender identity.

Sex-specific facilities and female-only spaces could be eliminated. Biological males will have the right to participate in female sports, unjustly denying female athletes at our schools a fair competition and the due rewards of accomplishment.

New Protocols in Place at Beautiful Savior

With the expiration of state and city mask mandates, Beautiful Savior has ushered in a few changes to our COVID-19 protocols. Beginning on Palm Sunday, the church has made more pews in the sanctuary available for seating. We are also softening the mask mandate at the church: If you cannot socially distance at 6 feet from those outside your immediate family, please consider wearing a mask to protect yourself and others. If you desire more space between you and others, please use our overflow seating in the Fellowship Hall where you can participate in the worship service via closed circuit.

Live Music, Service Update

Beautiful Savior has returned to live music for worship services. After Easter, we will offer a contemporary service at 8:15 a.m. on Sunday and a traditional service at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday.

Treasured VBS: Discovering You're Priceless to God

Jesus loves you. You are a treasure and priceless to God. Many of our kids' lives have been flipped upside down. Now, more than ever, they need to hear these special words to remind them that God knows them, hears them, comforts them, forgives them, and chooses them. Help kids hold onto the truth that they are God's greatest treasure! Save the date for June 6th-10th from 6-8pm. Everyone 4 years-6th grade is welcome to attend. More info regarding registration will follow.

Evangelism to Meet May 3

The evangelism committee will meet at 12:30 p.m. on Monday, May 3, at Perkins. We are looking for volunteers to help with distributing BSLC "swag bags." They are designed to increase the awareness of worship, education and service groups at Beautiful Savior. Come and enjoy some fellowship, lunch and free pie! Please RSVP to the church office or contact Tim Deitemeyer at tim.deitemeyer@hotmail.com by Thursday, April 29.

Note Easter Service Times

Because Beautiful Savior will not have an education hour on Easter Sunday, we will offer three services that day. Please join us for worship at 8:15, 9:30 or 10:45 a.m. to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. Please note the time change for the late service.

Confirmation Sunday April 25

Ten youth from our congregation will be confirmed at 1 p.m. Sunday, April 25. Please pray for these individuals as they step forward in their journey of Christian faith. Our confirmands are:

Dylan Barth	Rylee Hans
Olivia Blotsky	Nicholas Harvey
Clay Fell	Mckenzie Kainz
Colin Gannon	Morgan Mielke
Maia Gilman	Jacob Waldvogel

High School Seniors: Graduation Plans and Pictures Needed

Do you have a youth who will graduate from high school this year? BSLC would like to know their future plans. Please leave an update and a picture in the church office or e-mail the church by April 18. A display of our high school seniors will be on the bulletin board outside the office along with a brief description of future plans. There also will be a short article on our seniors in our May newsletter. We will honor the seniors during a Sunday worship in May.

LWML Eastern Zone Spring Event

The LWML ND Eastern Zone Spring Event "Be Still and Know" will be at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Fargo, starting at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, April 17. An ingathering of household and personal items for the food pantry, as well as monetary donations will be collected. Items needed are: laundry soap, dish soap, hand soap, shampoo and conditioner, baby wipes, diaper sizes 1 and 4, cleaning supplies, toilet paper, Kleenex and toothpaste, toothbrushes are not needed. All are welcome to attend.

Clubs and Service Groups

Service Group - Our group for April will not be needed this month. Stay tuned for further details regarding how and when we will resume fellowship. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Elders - At least one of our elders are here every Sunday morning. They greet members and visitors, help the pastors with any needs and see that all goes well. If you have any concerns for our church, please talk to head elder Adam Tykwinski or any of the elders.

Quilting and Fellowship - We have resumed in-person quilting while practicing social distancing! Join us at 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 8 and 22. If you have any questions, please call Donna Ceroll at 232-2464.

BSLC Coffee Club - BSLC members, men and women of any age are invited to gather at 9 a.m. on Friday mornings at Randy's, 2130 University Drive S., Fargo.

Gold Club - We will not be meeting this month. Stay tuned for further details regarding how and when we will resume.

Beautiful Garden - Would you like to do a little gardening this summer? The fifth annual Beautiful Garden at Beautiful Savior will have a kickoff meeting at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, April 6, in the fellowship hall. We will be planning a planting strategy and a summer gardening schedule. If you have any interest in gardening, fellowship and sharing in the miracles of God's creation, please come. We could use your help and you could benefit from the bountiful harvest as well as fellow Beautiful Savior members and the emergency food pantry in Fargo. We meet at the garden at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesdays beginning in May. Contact the church office or e-mail Tim Deitemeyer at tim.deitemeyer@hotmail.com and you will be added to the communication list.

LWML - LWML will meet at 6 p.m. on Monday, April 19, via Zoom. All women are invited to join. Your participation in LWML is a great way to make new friends and serve the Lord.

Upcoming BSLC Bible Studies

9:30 a.m. Sunday morning Bible study beginning April 11: Seeking God's guidance: How to make wise decisions - "God, I don't know what to do." We have all said these words and struggled with making God-pleasing decisions. Sin has complicated and compromised our ability to make wise choices that reflect God's perfect and Holy will. Prey to fallen human ideas, opinions and feelings, God's people stray from God's truth! Christians often skip the Divine Service, seeing it as optional rather than God's precious gift. Christians often cohabit and enter sexual relationships outside of marriage against God's will. Gender and sexuality have degenerated into twisted expressions against God's design. Social media has become a fierce battleground for attacking others. Vulgarities abound in today's speech. Respect for authority has declined significantly. In the Holy Spirit's power, we will turn to the Holy Scriptures as our final authority, knowing that God has given us His word to show us our sin, reveal our Savior and empower us to know and do His will.

7 p.m. Tuesday evening Bible study: "Genesis: A Book of Beginnings" - Genesis is a book of beginnings and promises. It explains the beginning of the universe, the beginning of humankind, the beginning of sin, the beginning of God's people, the beginning of God's covenant promises with Abraham and his descendants, and the beginning of sacrifice as the substitution of death for life. The rest of the Bible - particularly the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ - only makes sense when we understand these important beginnings.

9 a.m. Thursday Women's Bible study via Zoom: "Revelations - The Triumph of God": All women are welcome to join. Contact the church office or call Shirley Elsner at 388-9521 to register.

Deaths

March 15: Mike Breitbarth, 44, of Fargo passed away. His funeral was at Beautiful Savior on March 23. Burial Services will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church Pender, NE at 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 27.

Mike is survived by his wife of 17 years, Bri, Fargo; parents Brian and Donna Breitbarth, Fargo; son Ashton Breitbarth; daughter Mackenzie Mackner and grandson Asher Michael Avery (Meho).

The Promised Land

By Pastor Brian

The Lord replied, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." (Exodus 33:14).

The Lord had rescued His people from slavery in Egypt. The people had fashioned a calf-shaped idol out of gold, Egyptian style and worshiped it. The Lord had punished them. Now what? The road to the Promised Land was forty years long, and they would have to travel through desert and wilderness the whole way.

Maybe you, too, have paid a heavy price for something you've done. Maybe you still feel the effects. Where do you turn when the burden of your sin weighs heavily on you? We may think that if we stay busy, we will forget the burden we carry. We may turn to recreation and entertainment to relieve our pain. These are only temporary and inadequate bandages for wounds that run soul deep.

Listen to what the Lord says to his Old Testament people in today's reading. He says, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." The Lord is present with you, just as he was present with them. The Lord has rest for you, just as he had rest for them. God's Son Jesus knows exactly what your burden of sin feels like. He carried it all the way to the cross, together with the sin of everyone who has ever lived, and that's where He left it. This is no band-aid. This is the Lord of all lifting a ton of weight off of your soul; this is your Savior dealing with guilt-burdened hearts at the source of all guilt. Jesus became sin for you. In Him, you have rest for your soul.

The road through your wilderness may be long, but you aren't traveling alone. Jesus is here for you in God's Word every step of the way. He's here for you with his soul-saving message of forgiveness and rest. Jesus also will be there for you at the end of the road, to welcome you into the Promised Land.

"Main Street Living North" TV Program News

He is risen - He is risen indeed! Of all the truths taught and believed, this is the most important one, that Jesus rose physically from the dead! "So the Jews said to Him (Jesus), 'What sign do You show us for doing these things?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?' But He was speaking about the temple of His body. When, therefore, He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken." (John 2:18-22). May we also continue to remember and believe!

Thank you for your financial support! Checks may be sent to "Main Street Living North," 821 5th Ave. S., Fargo, ND 58103, or donate by credit card or your PayPal account on the website.

The Equality Act will eliminate the significant protections of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, passed by Congress and signed into law in 1993. This law has provided strong protections for “free exercise of religion” in the face of overzealous officials.

The Equality Act contains no conscience protections for medical staff who choose not to perform abortions, even if they have religious objections. Because of its broad definition of “health” services, the Equality Act threatens the Hyde Amendment, which limits public funding for abortion. It also threatens Christian hospitals with elimination of funding for not performing “health” services, including abortion or genital mutilation. The Equality Act was recently passed by the House and is currently pending in the Senate. The margin is razor thin. If it does not become law now, we can be assured that it will be pressed again. We encourage all LCMS people to:

1. Treat all people with kindness and respect (“You shall love your neighbor as yourself” Mark 12:31), while holding firmly to “the faith once delivered to the saints” (Jude 3).
2. Become informed about the Equality Act and the issues of gender dysphoria.
3. Consider your role as Christian citizens and make your voice known to your elected officials, particularly in the U.S. House (house.gov/representatives) and Senate (senate.gov/senators/index.htm).
4. Pray for our officials, government and the church in these challenging days.

Martin Luther once said, “Christ dwells only in sinners.” We recognize ourselves as sinners constantly in need of Christ’s forgiveness. We recognize the truth of the apostle Peter’s words, “For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God” (1 Peter 4:17). We know that Jesus’ opponents grumbled against Him by saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them” (Luke 15:2). This comforting verse applies to us sinners, and we welcome all others to join us at the feet of Jesus, the sole Savior of all (John 3:16). As Christians, we believe that God has created all people, and all are infinitely valuable and accountable to Him. As Christian citizens, we recognize and demand basic God-given civil rights for all people, even as we insist on the First Amendment rights of Christians.

No matter the course of this or any legislation, Christ will sustain His church. Our hope is not in laws, Congress or courts. Our hope is Christ. “And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age” (Matt. 28:20). “Finally, all of you, have unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind. Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, bless, for to this you were called, that you may obtain a blessing.

“Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for righteousness’ sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God’s will, than for doing evil.” (1 Peter 3:8–9, 13–17).

Congregational Memory Verse Challenge

Psalms 1 teaches us to meditate on God's Word day and night. It is our great opportunity and joy to read and study God's Word. One beneficial practice is to memorize the Scriptures and, in so doing, to meditate on it. The LCMS invites everyone to join together memorizing a verse each week.

April 4: Romans 6:8–9 - Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

April 11: John 14:19 - Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

April 18: 1 Corinthians 15:22 - For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

April 25: 1 Corinthians 15:57 - But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
