Scariest Word in Church is no Match for Jesus New Sunday Study Helps You to Share Who You are in Christ

By Pastor Chris

Certain words make us uncomfortable. I'm not talking about vulgarities, the dirty words with which society has become way too comfortable. No, certain words just rub people the wrong way; they assault our sensibilities. I'm not sure which words land on your list, but phlegm, moist, tofu, tender and pantyhose took some of the top spots for most hated in the English language.

In church, we hear words that make us uncomfortable, too. These might include sin, death and hell. But if you really want to make someone head for the door or run for cover, say the word "evangelism."

Maybe you have seen evangelism done poorly. Maybe you have seen evangelism go poorly. Maybe the thought of cold calls and door-to-door visits might make you weak in the knees. And the subject matter? It's so important! We don't want to get this wrong! There is a lot at stake.

But God is an excellent communicator. He wants each person to know about his faithfulness, love and mercy despite all our broken sinfulness and rebellion.

OUR MISSION is to share
God's message, to grow in our faith, to love and serve others.

Scariest Word in Church is no Match for Jesus New Sunday Study Helps You to Share Who You are in Christ

If you feel unprepared to talk with others, take heart. Help is on the way. God's Word kills and makes alive. It chastens and it heals. But most importantly, the Gospel is meant to be shared with others. Paul proudly proclaims: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes," (Romans 1:16a).

Beginning April 16, Beautiful Savior will begin a study at 9:30 a.m. on Sundays to help you witness to friends, coworkers and any other non-churched people you may know. How is this done? It means listening to those who are unsure about Christianity. It means asking questions that aren't accusatory. It means sharing the Good News about Jesus. Notice how there's no bashing, no judgment, and no forced imposition of beliefs. Instead, there's understanding, communication, and honesty between friends.

Join us on Sunday mornings for "Everyone His Witness" to get over your fear of the word "evangelism" and instead focus on good news and great joy in Jesus Christ.

Pastor Chris

Upcoming Bible Studies

9:30 a.m. Sunday morning Bible study: "Everyone His Witness" - Beginning April 16, Beautiful Savior will begin a study to help you to get over your fear of the word "evangelism" and instead focus on good news and great joy in Jesus Christ. We will help you witness to friends, coworkers and any other non-churched people you may know. How is this done? It means listening to those who are unsure about Christianity. It means asking questions that aren't accusatory. It means sharing the Good News about Jesus. Notice how there's no bashing, no judgment, and no forced imposition of beliefs. Instead, there's understanding, communication and honesty between friends.

In December of 2021, Beautiful Savior offered members a chance to complete a survey to identify strengths and growth areas in the congregation. Although no areas were identified that impact the church negatively, members shared that improvements could be made in both outreach to the community and inreach to BSLC members.

6:30 p.m. Sunday night Family Bible Study: "Chosen" - See the Bible come to life through "The Chosen" video series. Bring family and friends for a night of fellowship and faith. A potluck supper begins at 6 p.m. followed by the study. There will be no study on Easter or Confirmation Sunday, April 23.

7 p.m. Tuesday night Bible study: "Celebrating the Saints" - How much do you know about figures from Christian history like Emperor Constantine, Polycarp or Anselm? What about lesser-known people from the Bible such as Silas, Matthias (not Matthew) or Simon the Zealot? Throughout history, God has delivered His people by demonstrating His goodness, mercy and grace. In the forgiveness of sins in Christ alone, God's people are rightly called saints. Intertwined with the Lord's story are those who are His. Join us to see God working remarkably in the lives of His people.

9 a.m. Thursday Women's Bible study: "Praying the Psalms" - "Praying the Psalms" will help you to learn how to openly express the full range of emotions - joy, anger, distress, hope and trust - to God.

7 p.m. Monday April 10: Men's Bible study - Enjoy fellowship with other men from our church and learn what the Bible says about the vocation God has given us.

7 p.m. Thursday, April 20: Married Couple Bible study - We will be taking a look at what God's Word has to say about marriage and why it is still so relevant today!

Easter Breakfast April 9

Bring your appetites to church this Easter! A delicious breakfast of rolls, muffins, fruit, scrambled eggs, sausage links, juice and coffee will be served on Easter Sunday from 8:45 -10:30 a.m. Thanks to the youth who will be serving our Easter breakfast this year. Stop in the fellowship hall to enjoy food and conversation on this joyous day.

Easter Flowers On Altar

A sign-up sheet is available in the narthex to order Easter flowers in memory or in honor of loved ones. Flowers and the prices are listed on the sign-up sheets. Quantities are limited, so get your orders in early. Please make checks payable to the LWML.

Voters' Meeting Update

This celebration will include snacks, crafts and the story about Palm Sunday.

Memory Verse Challenge

April 2: Ephesians 2:4-5 - God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved.

April 9: Romans 5:1 - Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

April 16: Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

April 23: Ephesians 2:13-14 - Now, in Christ Jesus, you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility.

April 30: Mark 12:29-31 - Jesus answered, "The most important [commandment] is: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Jesus Brings Light to the Darkness

By Pastor Brian

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone." Isaiah 9:2

Have you noticed that many movies in the last decade are dark, dystopian films? In the past, movies had happy endings. But now, it seems the setting, characters and even the conclusion are dark. These movies resonate with large audiences because many people feel unstable in our cultural moment. Corrupt politicians, the potential of war and the isolation our technology brings have darkened our hope for a better future.

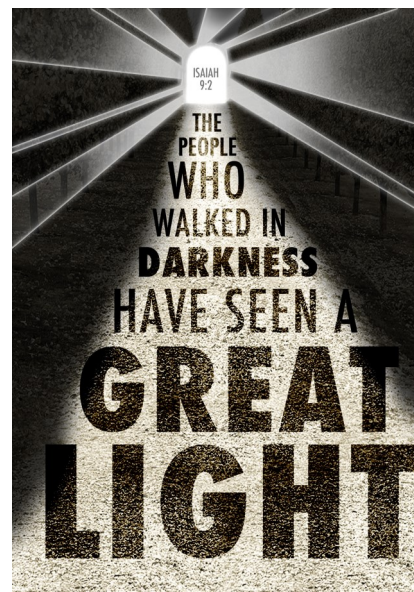

This is not a new feeling. Two thousand seven hundred years ago, in the days of Isaiah the prophet, Israel had lost all hope. The ruthless Assyrian Empire swallowed up the Northern Israelites. And the big, bad Babylonians were crouching, ready to pounce on what remained of God's people. Eventually, these two enemies decimated the nation of Israel.

Since the beginning of their history, God promised to send them a Messiah-King who would set them free from their oppressors. But after hundreds of years of suffering, they abandoned their dream of freedom. In their distress, they began to believe they lived in a dark story with no happy ending. But Isaiah the prophet continued to preach a message of hope. He said those living in darkness would see a great light.

When Jesus arrived hundreds of years after this prophecy, He declared He was the light Isaiah predicted. Yet, instead of just conquering their earthly enemies, Jesus had a bigger goal. He came to conquer sin and death and rule their hearts with His peace. And so, hanging on a cross, He absorbed the darkness of the world into Himself until it killed Him, and then He rose again as the light of life.

Now, all who believe in His name, enjoy God's forgiveness, the promise of the resurrection and the hope of the world to come.

Don't let the daily news or Hollywood's latest film distort your faith in the promises of God. The glory of God has brightened your dark heart. And soon, Jesus will bring our story to a happy ending.

Ukrainian Orphanage/Orphan Grain Train Update

The Beautiful Savior LWML recently voted to donate $300 to the Ukrainian Orphanage Project. Bonnie Kittleson, Immanuel, Fargo, purchased items to pack in suitcases. She also asked for donations for filler items to fill empty spaces in the suitcases. Kirk Rosin and his brother Brian, are taking these suitcases to Ukraine.

Part of an email update from Kirk: On Tuesday we were dropped off at the airport in Chicago. We each had a carry-on bag, a backpack and two suitcases that were 50 pounds each. They were actually a little bit more than 50 pounds, but the clerk at the check-in counter just let them go, praise the Lord. We left Chicago at approximately 10:30 at night. We got into Hamburg, Germany, at approximately 11:30 a.m. We had a two hour layover there, and in Germany, it went much smoother than in Paris the year before. We got on our connecting flight and arrived in Poland at 4 p.m.

We then set out to figure out how we were going to get to Zhytomyr. At the bus stop, I found a couple of young girls who spoke some English and asked them about a bus to Kiev or Ukraine. Fortunately they helped me, and we went to the bus stop and waited. About 7 p.m. a bus showed up there. I found a lady who I thought maybe spoke English. She said the bus was going to Kiev. I asked her if she could get us a couple of tickets on the bus also. We had to pay cash only in Polish money or Euros. Brian had Polish cash. The cost of the bus tickets for our 15 hour bus ride from Warsaw to Kiev was $36 for each of us. We got on the bus, and they did not charge us extra for the suitcases which they are supposed to.

We did not have any Ukrainian money, so we couldn't get food or water. A farm girl did buy us water at one stop. We rode through the night on the bus. The roads were rough, and it was slow going. We arrived in Kiev, after a fifteen hour bus ride. Alla was there to meet us. We were hungry as we had not eaten anything. Alla said we would go and eat, but when we got to the food center, it was locked. She reported there was an air raid so all the businesses were locked up, so there was nowhere for us to eat. We drove for a awhile and then she said the air raid warning was off. We stopped at a gas station and got something to eat.

We arrived in Zhytomyr on Thursday. We found an apartment to rent. It's a one-bedroom, with a bath, a couch and comfortable. We slept Thursday afternoon, then later we went out and bought some groceries.

Later, towards evening, we went over to the container that ND OGT shipped over, and opened up the container. It looked as a though it had made it through customs, and everything was there! We praise the Lord for that.

On Saturday she took us to tour the city. We saw a number of things, including the school that was bombed. The school was hit the day after they had returned from Chernivtsi, when they come back from the refugee camp.

Today is Sunday, and we are going to do some grocery shopping. It is supposed to be in the 60s the next couple of days and then highs of 40s the rest of the week. They told us that on Tuesday the heat will be turned off for the year. We remember those times in Mexico at 40 degrees and how cold it was! We will see what happens here.

We will go to Alla's church this afternoon. They have asked me to say a few words about why we are here at Zhytomyr. Thank you for all your prayers. We definitely need them and appreciate them so much.

God bless, Kirk
