By Pastor Chris

I may be a former journalist, but I'm still a sucker for an odd or amusing news story. So I couldn't help clicking on this recent headline: "Bull in a China Shop: Bull Goes on a Shopping Spree in downtown Park Rapids."

Valley News Live reported that this naughty bovine spent 45 minutes moooving on Main Street before finally kowtowing to its owner. Police blocked streets so people could safely corral the animal. Cowtastrophe averted!

We sinners run like bulls in a China shop. We indulge the domineering, self-centered, self-righteous and self-possessed sinful nature. We see red, charge ahead and break God's commands while trampling on God's creation and creatures. What a mess!

But God doesn't let sin and death win the day! He doesn't let these enemies completely consume His creation. After the fall into sin, God barred the way to the tree of life "lest man reach out his hand and live forever in a fallen state." God drove out the man, and at the east of the garden of Eden, He placed the cherubim and a flaming sword that turned every way to guard the way to the tree of life (Genesis 3:22-24).

FALL SCHEDULE

Cowtastrophe Averted!

With the tree of life now beyond man's reach, God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son to take on flesh and accomplish the restoration and salvation of mankind. Jesus does this not by charging forward His own way, but by perfectly obeying the Father's will and becoming obedient unto death. Jesus does this "by the tree of the cross that, where death arose, there life might also arise again and that the serpent, who overcame by the tree of the garden, might likewise, by the tree of the cross, be overcome," (Proper Preface for Holy Week).

You have been united to Jesus in your baptism. You have been buried and raised with Him. The tree of the cross is part of your story! Paul puts it this way: "We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus," (Romans 6:6-11).

By the power of His Gospel, our Lord placed you under His charge, not your own bull-headed ways. Jesus changes everything! "Sin no longer has dominion over you because you are not under law, but under grace!" (Romans 6:14).

Cowtastrophe averted! Thanks be to God!

Consider yourselves dead to sin

and

to GOD in

Pastor Chris

NYG to Host Presentation for Envelope Sponsors

Eight youth, three adult leaders and Pastor Brian went to the National Youth Gathering in Houston. They had a great time learning more about how our God is "In All Things." The youth were actively engaged by the speakers at the gathering and were able to go to sessions on topics they were interested in. They also enjoyed the mass event each night when almost 20,000 people gathered together to sing, listen and worship our God who is involved "in all things." Thank you for praying for us during trip.

The NYG youth will host a presentation for those who supported them through the envelope sponsorship fundraiser. Mark your calendars for 11:15 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 28 right after our Sunday morning Bible class.

Upcoming Bible Studies

10:15 a.m. Sunday morning Bible study: "Death, Heaven, Resurrection and the New Creation" - Death is a reality we all must face. Some embrace death as a friend. Others fear it, seeking to avoid it at all costs. But Christians find hope in the Lord Jesus, who overcame the grave. Death has no hold over Jesus, and it will have no hold over you.

7 p.m. Tuesday night Bible study: "Overcoming Life's Sorrows: Learning from Jeremiah" - This tour of the book of Jeremiah shows us how to find comfort amid life's grief and heartbreaks by pointing us to Jeremiah's reliance on God and ultimately pointing us to Jesus, the real "man of sorrows" and the One in whom all hope and joy are found. This study is offered in person and via Zoom. You may enter the meeting manually: Meeting ID: 878 698 0623; Passcode: 497670

9 a.m. Thursday Women's Bible study (in person): We will be taking the month of August off. Beginning Thursday, Sept. 8, we invite you to grab a cup of your favorite warm beverage and join us in "Sip, Savor, and Drink Deeply" by Deb Burma.

This study will give a way of taking familiar coffee-shop imagery, connecting it to our daily lives and pouring in the rich aroma and flavor of God's Word. If you would like to join the group, let Shirley Elsner know. The book costs $10.80.

7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 18: Married Couple Bible Study - The married couple small group Bible study will be taking a look at what God's Word has to say about marriage and showing it is still so relevant today!

7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 22: Men's Bible Study - Enjoy fellowship with other men from our church and learn what the Bible says about the vocation God has given us.

Final Wednesday Night Potluck

Before the Wednesday night service on Aug. 24, we will be hosting our final potluck meal for the summer. The meal will begin at 5:30 p.m. at Beautiful Savior. Hamburgers and hot dogs will be served. Bring a dish or dessert to share and enjoy a meal and some fellowship with your church family!

Eyes!

By Pastor Brian

“Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;” (Psalm 119:37).

What do our eyes decide to look at? A compelling article from the University of Melbourne gives this some thought. For quite some time, the dominant theory has been that people’s eyes automatically focus on whatever is bright and shiny in front of them. For example, if you show someone a picture of a drab city street with a bright yellow taxi, the person will first look at the taxi.

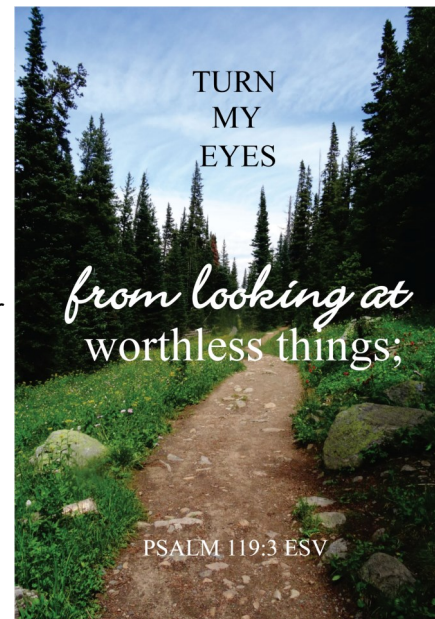

Recent work in this area, however, suggests there’s another factor in what our eyes choose to see. Rather than just looking at what is bright and shiny, our eyes also seek out those things that are meaningful to us. And what is meaningful? There’s the big question. The answer to that question can vary from person to person.

In Psalm 119, the Holy Spirit moved the psalmist to pray, “Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things.” Our ancient enemy, the devil, knows it rarely works for him to attack us directly and demands that we turn our eyes away from Jesus. Instead, he’s learned that the more he can get us to fix our eyes on other things—things that seem more important and urgent at the moment—the more he can gently nudge us away from our Savior.

And here’s the tricky part. The thing that pulls our attention away from Jesus does not need to be an inherently bad thing. It might be a wonderful thing. Maybe it’s a relationship, family, hobby, career, retirement planning, or keeping up with the news.

All well and good in and of themselves, but when I slip into presuming that one of these good things is more worthy of my ongoing attention than my Savior, then Satan has set his hooks. Disaster awaits.

Thank God for Jesus. Not only has He washed us clean at the cross, but He also continues to pursue us with His Holy Spirit. He empowers us to come to repentance, to turn our eyes away from relatively worthless things, to fix our eyes upon Him all over again.

“Main Street Living North” TV Program News

“Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction,” (2 Timothy 4:2.) what a tremendously important directive for all times. It is so important these days when the pressure is increasing to change and totally disregard what God has revealed regarding the sanctity of human life and His creation of male and female in the image of God!

Your financial support, checks may be sent to Main Street Living North, 821 Fifth Ave. S., Fargo, ND 58103, or donate by credit card or your PayPal account on the website. Thank you.

Aug. 7: Hosea 14:9 - Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; whoever is discerning, let him know them; for the ways of the Lord are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

Aug. 14: 1 Kings 8:27-28 - But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you; how much less this house that I have built! Yet have regard to the prayer of your servant and to his plea, O Lord my God, listening to the cry and to the prayer that your servant prays before you this day.

Aug. 21: Ephesians 3:20-21 - Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Aug. 28: Exodus 6:6-7 - Say therefore to the people of Israel, "I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from slavery to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great acts of judgment. I will take you to be my people, and I will be your God, and you shall know that I am the Lord your God, who has brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians."
