Lord's Supper celebrated

How God Gave Us Christmas

(By Pastor Chris)

Twas right before Christmas, and Mary and Joe
Were perplexed quite a bit; they had no place to go.
To Bethlehem they had gone to be counted.
When, from her donkey, Mary suddenly dismounted.

"The baby is coming! Just what shall we do?"
And Joseph said: "What you tell me to!"

With no hospital beds or an upper guest suite,
The two found some shelter with ass, oxen and sheep.

Not really a place for a baby to come,
But the two had no choice; Mary'd soon be a mum!

The Spirit had overshadowed this virgin most mild,
who for nearly nine months had been carrying the child.

I dare you to find a happening quite stranger,
Than God's only Son, who was laid in a manger.

That's a trough filled with feed in case you don't know.
The animals were hungry and started to low.

That's when Christmas began; the whole thing was new,
When God sent His Son just for me and for you.

Mary spoke to her Son in a voice feint and soft,
While wrapping him warmly in swaddling cloth.

This was the Messiah Mary lovingly squeezes.
An angel told Joe that His name would be Jesus.

You will be great, she whispered, Son of the Most High.
You will reign for all time, and Your kingdom is nigh.

Meanwhile, there were shepherds tending their flock,
Watching for wolves while punching the clock.

"When's break time?" they said, "I'm wanting to sleep.
And I just cannot do it while watching my sheep."

Then an angel appeared, shining with heavenly own glory.
"I bring tidings of joy, and it's quite a good story!"

"Go to the town of David this day
To find where a babe in a manger does lay.

"He is Christ the Lord, the coming Anointed.
He's easy to find." Then the angel, he pointed.

"To Bethlehem town you Shepherds will see
The world's King and Savior from eternity."

Then all of a sudden, there appeared a great throng
Of heavenly host who were singing a song.

"Glory to God in the highest," we say.
"God's peace and goodwill to men on this day."

The shepherds then went to the town as instructed
With a babe in a manger, it was then they deducted

"This must be the baby of whom it was spoken."
Then they told of the angels and said, "We're not jokin'!"

And Mary could not quite believe this whole thing.
Deep down in her heart, there was much pondering.

All felt the deep joy of that first Christmas morn.
They went to tell others that Jesus is born!

There was never a Christmas before Jesus came.
Look very closely at the day's holy name.

Christmas is not what we decide it should be.
It's God in the flesh come for you and for me.

A babe born to die and suffer things most unpleasant
True God and true man – The Father's best present.

Without Christ, no true light can e'er be found.
No joy, no cheer, no merriment sound.

His joy is eternal, it's whole and complete
So shout from the rooftops and proclaim on the street.

The merry in Christmas is from Christ the Lord!
Who did on the cross all our gross sins afford.

He had done nothing wrong but was wholly made sin
So that righteous and holy man might be again.

He rose from the grave, its fierce power he swallowed
And gave hope and a joy that will always be hallowed.

So hold onto the Christ when your Christmas is blue.
Remember His promise for white Christmases, too.

Between God and man, Jesus set all aright.
Now there's coming a day when they'll be no more night!

Pastor Chris

Living Nativity

Step back in time to experience the wonder of Jesus' birth in Bethlehem. Crosspointe Lutheran Church and Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church will sponsor a live nativity from 2:30-5:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 18, in the Hartl Building at the Red River Valley Fairgrounds, 1805 Main Ave. W., West Fargo. The event will include a Bethlehem market with various activities and refreshments for kids of all ages. This is a free event. 2022 Advent Series Celebrates 'God's Promises, Our Glorious Future'

When it comes to looking toward our future, God's promises and His faithfulness in delivering those promises form the foundation of a sure and certain hope. Human-concocted utopian dreams that depend on human technology, engineering or science will not deliver the glorious life that Yahweh already has secured for His people through Jesus Christ. Still, we await the return of the Lord Jesus to usher in God's Kingdom without remainder. This year's midweek Advent series will explore the theme "God's Promises, Our Glorious Future." Through the prophet Isaiah, God calls His people to repentance, faith and hope in the coming of the Lord.

Our four-week midweek Advent series will be held at 7 p.m. from Wednesday, Nov. 30, through Wednesday, Dec. 21. This theme also will continue during Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

Plan to join us for midweek soup and sandwich suppers at 6 p.m. before services. Please bring soups, sandwiches, sides, snacks and desserts to share with your Beautiful Savior family.

Trustworthy and True

By Pastor Brian

The angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true." (Revelation 22:6).

Occasionally, I'll watch a movie, and right before the credits roll, the producers will provide real-life updates on the characters. Shocked, I'll think, 'That was a true story?' As soon as you know that what you just watched was based on real people, it has a way of changing your perspective on the whole movie.

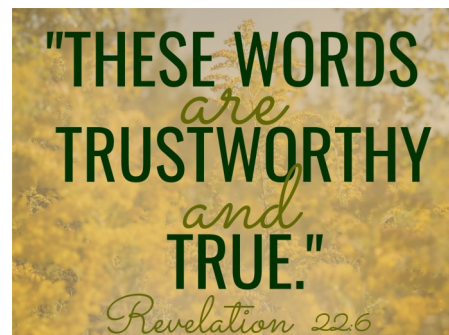

Just as the credits are about to roll after the last chapter of the Bible, we hear the same message, "This is a true story." Maybe we had been convinced of that long ago. But at some times more than others, we need to be reminded, "These words are trustworthy and true."

This was one of those times for a believer named John. He had witnessed some seemingly unbelievable events during his lifetime. As part of Jesus' "inner circle," he watched Jesus raise a little girl from the dead. He watched Jesus converse with two heroes of faith who had already gone to heaven. When Jesus stood in John's midst and explained his words and actions, there was little room for doubt in John's mind.

But when John wrote the words of our Bible passage, Jesus hadn't been around in the flesh for more than fifty years. John's friends and fellow disciples had all been killed. John himself had been exiled to an island. Things weren't looking good for John or the Christian Church.

Perhaps you've felt the same way. You may feel abandoned and alone. Christianity seems not to be doing well, as Christians are viewed more as haters than helpers.

It is for you that the words of this Bible passage were written. God's Word is true. Not was true, but is true. And because God's Word is true, it is also trustworthy. You can trust that your sins are forgiven through Jesus' selfless sacrifice. You can trust that He defeated death when He rose from the dead and came out of the tomb. You can trust that He has not left you alone. These words are trustworthy and true.

"Main Street Living North" TV Program News

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." (Luke 2:14). There doesn't seem to be much peace on earth these days. As I write this article in mid-November, Russia continues to rain down missiles throughout the Ukraine, tensions are growing with North Korea, as well as with China, and the recent mid-term elections seem to indicate an ever-deepening split in our own nation regarding who should govern. Sadly, I could list many more examples of a lack of peace. But there is peace between God and those of us who believe in Him! This peace has been made possible by the Jesus we celebrate especially at this time of the year we call CHRISTmas!

We invite you to consider a special year end Christmas gift for our Main Street Living media ministry. Checks may be sent to "Main Street Living North," 821 5th Ave. S., Fargo, ND 58103, or donate by credit card or your PayPal account on the website.
