A joyful campaign amid all the negative ones

By Pastor Chris

Quick. How about another campaign ad?

Many members of our congregation have expressed their desire for a speedy conclusion to the upcoming elections due to the content of political advertising. Seems like all that negativity bleeds over into American life.

Beautiful Savior has begun a campaign of a different sort. "Restore His House" is a three-year $330,000 campaign that seeks to upgrade the facilities here and to renew the faith of our members.

Amid a capital campaign, I hope that your response will not be "all you want is our money." That is the furthest thing from the truth. Restore His House seeks to remind us that God first wants our heart not because He needs the attention or accolades but because He desires for us to receive His many blessings of forgiveness of sins, strengthening of our faith and walking together as His Church.

Restore His House - Fall Stewardship Focus

Restore His House - 3 Year Capital Campaign has officially begun!

You've probably already noticed the new siding on our church building. That is just the first of a number of projects that will be funded over the next 3 years as we aim to raise $300,000 for our building fund. Details of the campaign will be arriving soon in your mailbox.

We also have a goal to raise an additional $30,000 for missions during this campaign which will be going to Grace Lutheran School. This was approved by the Voters at the Sept. 23 voters' meeting. What a blessing to be able to support our school!

Be sure to take time to prayerfully consider what you can contribute to support the Restore His House campaign. Your contributions to this campaign should be over and above your regular annual giving. You will have a separate opportunity in November to make your regular annual giving commitment.

St. Peter writes, "As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 2:4-5). As living stones, and as a house for the Holy Spirit both individually and corporately, we hope you will consider your place in serving and learning, giving and receiving as we focus on mercy, witness and life together as the body of Christ.

In addition to a renewed zeal for God's mission and our place in it, our campaign seeks to improve the overall campus here at Beautiful Savior through a new siding project, an updated parking lot, improvements to the sanctuary and mission dollars to Grace Lutheran School.

We hope that our church would reflect that we recognize this is the place where God has promised to dwell among us. God promises that he works among us through the means of grace: His holy Word and blessed Sacraments. Here, God not only has made this His house, but His home, where He lovingly cares for and nurtures His children.

As this news of a new campaign reaches you, we hope it will be a source of hope, pride and opportunity to celebrate and support God making you into living stones, building you into a spiritual house of His dwelling. On Christ, the cornerstone,

Pastor Chris

BSLC Stand Against Homelessness set for Oct. 13-14

Join our congregation's fight against homelessness in the F-M area by bringing canned goods throughout October to fill the shelves of the Dorothy Day food pantry. Items needed include boxed cereal and canned goods, especially canned fruit and canned vegetables.

All members of the congregation are also invited to experience what it is like to be homeless for a day. Participants are asked to sleep outside in a cardboard box, fast for 24 hours and learn more about the problem of homelessness in the community and the resources available to assist those in need. The event lasts from noon on Saturday, Oct. 13 and concludes at noon on Sunday, Oct. 14.

Upcoming Bible Studies

9:40 a.m. Sunday morning Bible study:

"Restore His House" Tying into our stewardship and mission emphasis, Restore His House will explore the importance of teaching the faith, restoring generosity and service in our church. St. Peter writes, "As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." As living stones, and as a house for the Holy Spirit both individually and corporately, we hope you will consider your place in serving and learning, giving and receiving as we focus on mercy, witness and life together as the body of Christ.

7 p.m. Tuesdays: "End Times" Christians believe not only that the world had a beginning (creation) and a glorious middle (our Lord's death and resurrection), but also that it will have an end. The narratives of the Bible inspire us; the truths of our faith encourage us; but we long for the promised ending, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Without it, the Christian "story" makes no sense. This study explores what the Bible has to say about the end times and what the divine Author has prepared, which is far greater than any of us could write or imagine, for His story ends in glory—the glory of Jesus' return and the resurrection of God's faithful into that glory forever.

6 p.m. Mondays and 9 a.m.

Thursdays Women's Bible study:

We will be studying the book of James. Studying James will help us grow a steadfast faith that can carry us through life.

New Member Corner

Karl and Angela Bauer, along with their children Mike, Noah, Reece and Kendra have lived in Fargo for six years. Angela opened Costco in West Fargo. They enjoy outdoor activities such as camping, hunting, fishing and sports. They try to take one big trip abroad each year as they enjoy traveling. Karl likes the verse "I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes..." (Romans 1:16). This was his confirmation verse and it reminds him to stand up for his faith and that he will have a place in heaven through his faith in Jesus. They have lived in many different areas of the U.S. because of their jobs. The one constant in their lives has been their faith in God and the community of Christ in the churches they have been blessed to be a part of.

New Member Class Oct. 25

Thursdays at 6 p.m.

Part of the joy of joining our church is learning more regarding what we teach about the Christian faith. We invite all new members and potential members to participate in our Discovery Class, which reviews the basic, but essential, teachings of the Bible. This class normally lasts about five to six weeks. Those who have been members for some time and who also would like a brief review are also welcome to attend!

Time for an Adjustment

By Vicar Brian

O Lord, what can I say, when Israel has turned their backs before their enemies! Joshua 7:8

The men of Israel took their self-sufficiency into battle with Ai. But after their defeat, Joshua's prayer was, "Lord, what can I say?" Failure is never easy; however, if we humble ourselves and make strategic changes, our failures can be some of our most valuable experiences. The following is an illustration to help with this point.

For much of the nineteenth century, fish merchants' attempts to ship fresh North Atlantic cod from Boston to San Francisco failed miserably. At that time, the only way to ship the fish to the West Coast was to dress them out, pack them in ice, load them on a ship and sail them around the South American continent—a trip that took months. As you can imagine, by the time the cod reached California, they weren't fit for human consumption.

In an attempt to overcome that problem, the merchants tried placing live cod in holding tanks full of water and shipping them to California. Most of the fish survived the trip, but because they didn't get much exercise in the tanks, their flesh was pasty and relatively tasteless. Another failure.

Finally, someone suggested that they place live catfish in the tanks with the cod, then ship them. Why? Because catfish are a cod's natural enemy, and having a few catfish in their tanks with them would keep them alert and swimming around. The idea worked. By the time the cod reached San Francisco, they were in perfect condition.

Do we see our failures as ultimate defeat, or do we see them as God's way of forcing us to make adjustments? I think that verses one and three of hymn 707 in our Lutheran Service Book sums this up quite nicely.

"Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways, / To keep His statutes still!
Oh, that my God would grant me grace, / To know and do His will!
Assist my soul to apt to stray, / A stricter watch to keep;
And should I e'er forget Thy way, / Restore Thy wand'ring sheep."
