The Days of Unending Christmas Have Arrived

By Pastor Chris

Are you ready for Sept. 17? On that day, a significant countdown begins: 100 days until Christmas.

For most of us, Christmas hovers somewhere far off the radar. Summer just ended! School and fall sports just kicked off. Who thinks about Christmas right now? But for retailers, the next several months mean the difference between boom or bust; promotion or a pink slip; profit or pain. You can't miss the signs. Marketing, decorating and sales have started. Pay attention! The lowest prices of the year are coming!

God's promises, however, are not unique to one season. God took on flesh in the person of Jesus Christ to bring forgiveness, life and peace for all. Our Lord's arrival changed everything! This truth does not just matter during Christmas.

Bringing more savings than any sale, warming hearts more than any hearth, filling you with good things more than any holiday smorgasbord and offering more worth than any gift, Jesus made you, the poor in Spirit, rich beyond measure.

Do you really have to wait 100 days for Christmas joy? Think of all the gifts you have in Christ! God's word and promise are fully revealed in Him and given through Him. Our Lord's all-availing sacrifice atoned for your sin once for all; even now, Jesus intercedes for you. The promised new ruler on David's throne ushered in the Kingdom of God, smashing the schemes of the devil, the world and your sinful flesh! Jesus came to be your Prophet, Priest and King forever!

Our Lord has another gift yet to give to you: His return. Like Christmas, that event probably seems like a long way off. It's something you might not think about or dwell upon now. But Jesus promises that He will come quickly and soon. Every year, I make a vow that I will begin preparations for Christmas earlier, and every year, it sneaks up on me. I find myself scrambling and stressed because of my failure to remember God's glad tidings of great joy for all people given in Christ.

But through the Means of Grace, God keeps your lamp of faith burning. The gifts just keep on coming throughout all times, dates and seasons. God began this work of faith in your baptism. He sustains it through His life- and Spirit-giving Word. He invites you to His holy Supper for the forgiveness of sins and strengthening of your faith! Jesus is God's gift to celebrate Christmas day and every day.

Do you really have to wait 100 days for Christmas joy? We don't know what date our Lord was born, and we do not know the day of His return. But by God-faith, you can know and celebrate that the days of unending Christmas -- Immanuel God with us -- have arrived.

Beautiful Savior
Lutheran Church

Beautiful Savior's 40 anniversary congregational celebration will be held at 9:15 a.m. between services on Sunday, Oct. 16. The celebration will include recognition of the charter members of the congregation; a timeline display highlighting important events in our 40 years; a photo display of our church family through the years; celebration activities in the church services; and cake and refreshments will be served between the worship services. ## Upcoming Bible Studies

9:30 a.m. Sunday morning Bible study: "Love and Life for All" -

Our society often devalues God's gift of life, diminishing the personhood and dignity of those considered undesirable or an inconvenience.

This includes - but is not limited to - the unborn, the severely handicapped, the infirm, the helpless and the aged. How can the church welcome, protect and love those whom society would rather discard? In the coming weeks, Sunday morning Bible's study will be "Love and Life for All." It will consider God's precious gift of life, Christ's redeeming sacrifice to bring all eternal life and our role in sharing God's love with and defending those whom society would rather forget.

7 p.m. Tuesday night Bible study: "Overcoming Life's Sorrows: Learning from Jeremiah" -

This tour of the book of Jeremiah shows us how to find comfort amid life's grief and heartbreaks by pointing us to Jeremiah's reliance on God and ultimately pointing us to Jesus, the real "man of sorrows" and the One in whom all hope and joy are found. This study is offered in person and via Zoom. You may enter the meeting manually: Meeting ID: 878 698 0623; Passcode: 497670

9 a.m. Thursday Women's Bible study:

Beginning Thursday, Sept. 8, we invite you to grab a cup of your favorite warm beverage and join us in "Sip, Savor, and Drink Deeply" by Deb Burma. This study will give a way of taking familiar coffee-shop imagery, connecting it to our daily lives and pouring in the rich aroma and flavor of God's Word.

7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15: Married Couple Bible Study -

The married couple small group Bible study will be taking a look at what God's Word has to say about marriage and why it is still so relevant today!

7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 19: Men's Bible Study -

Enjoy fellowship with other men from our church and learn what the Bible says about the vocation God has given us.

Bibles for Third-graders

The scriptures implore us to keep the Word of the Lord in front of us as a constant reminder of how much God does for us, especially salvation through Jesus Christ. God's word is also a means of grace, by which God works faith in us.

Because God's word is such a special gift, all children entering third grade will receive a Bible during the 8:15 or 10:45 a.m. service on Rally Sunday, Sept. 11. Please join us for this special celebration! This year's third-graders include:

Peyton Greenheck	Levi Schulz
Ava Johnson	Gavin Sweeney
Andrew Kenney	Trygve Thomassen
Abigail Kubista	Alaysha Waldvogel
Scarlett Moilan	Eliza Wirtz

A Warning - Do You Like Them or Hate Them?

By Pastor Brian

"Woe to you who are complacent in Zion, and to you who feel secure on Mount Samaria, you notable men of the foremost nation, to whom the people of Israel come! Go to Calneh and look at it; go from there to great Hamath, and then go down to Gath in Philistia. Are they better off than your two kingdoms? Is their land larger than yours? You put off the evil day and bring near a reign of terror. You lie on beds inlaid with ivory and lounge on your couches. You dine on choice lambs and fattened calves. You strum away on your harps like David and improvise on musical instruments. You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph. Therefore, you will be among the first to go into exile; your feasting and lounging will end." (Amos 6:1-7).

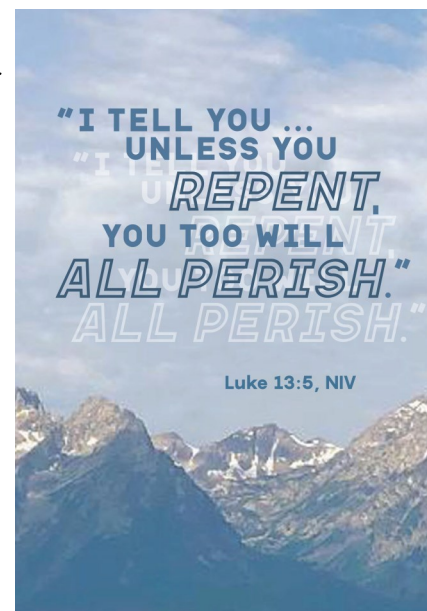

It's a dreadful feeling. You're cruising down the freeway, enjoying the countryside; up one hill and down the next and then...in your rearview mirror coming down the ramp with red and blue lights flashing—a highway patrol officer! Your heart sinks as your foot hits the brakes. Your eyes scan the speedometer to see that you were 14 over. As the officer pulls in behind you and you come to a stop, you hope that you'll just get a warning.

When it comes to warnings, there are some we like and some we don't. When the officer graciously gives a warning, we're relieved—mainly because we won't have to pay a fine, worry about points on our record or have to appear in court. Yet that warning hopefully serves its main purpose, to get us to slow down and obey the laws of the land, for our safety and the safety of others.

Through the Prophet Amos, God gave a spiritual warning to His Old Testament people. They weren't speeding; they were actually too slow, too lethargic, too complacent, too satisfied with the status quo of their faith life. In the warning, Amos points out that these people were more concerned about their own lives, their own comfy couches, having fine meals and tasty wine to drink. "All is well," they thought, but nothing could have been further from the truth. They—the descendants of Joseph—were in spiritual ruin and they would be exiled. What a strong warning and call to repent!

Amos' words of warning must not fall on deaf ears today. We must take a close look at our lives. Are we feasting on the creature comforts of this world? Are we investing in things that only rot and decay, while the preaching and teaching ministry of God's Word struggles? If we fail to heed the warning of the way sin and selfish living permeates our lives, we're heading for much worse than a speeding ticket or traffic court. We desperately need to hear God's warning and call to repent.

These spiritual warnings come from our God who is merciful and doesn't want anyone to perish. He wants all to repent and live. What's more, our God gives us a promise, that whoever believes in Jesus as their Savior will not perish from sin, but will have eternal life. May we heed God's warning this day, and trust in His Son always!

Sept. 25: Micah 7:7 - But as for me, I will look to the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

"Main Street Living North" TV Program News

What an important thing it is that we may sometimes take for granted! I am referring to the study, prayer, effort and time that our pastors put in week after week (and several times a week during certain times of the church year) to craft a sermon message for us. As I prepare these monthly newsletter articles, I see the various sermon titles listed by the pastors. This causes me to anticipate what the message will be; but it should also cause us all to remember to continually lift our pastors up in prayer with thanksgiving!

Your financial support, checks may be sent to Main Street Living North, 821 Fifth Ave. S., Fargo, ND 58103, or donate by credit card or your PayPal account on the website. Thank you.
